The power to heal comes from the sacred space not from the healer's personality or sensitive space.

God heals.

All the healer does is to establish a connection with God using the right language, the language of neutrality.

Healing from the View of Sat Nam Rasayan

In Sat Nam Rasayan, sickness is described as "a tendency of the body to react." The reaction can be a pain, an emotional problem or a serious illness. In the course of the education, the Sat Nam Rasayan healer develops the ability to find and dissolve these blockages, thus the self-healing powers of the body can become effective again.
